OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

At the dawn of creation, You brought order out of chaos, light out of darkness, life out of nothingness. Breathe on us once again, and change this culture of death into a Culture of Life. Inspire in Your people a spirit of generous welcome for each life, no matter how unexpected or dependent that life may be. Holy Spirit, You are the Advocate. As You fill us with Yourself, make us advocates for the unborn and all the vulnerable, until we are all united in the endless life and joy of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen.

TIME AND ETERNITY

Reflection on Mark 10:17-30

Every human person is a child of both time and eternity. The challenge we face is to live in time while being centered in eternity – what Jesus called living in the world but not of the world.

Living in time, we have to own things, to accumulate some wealth, to plan for the future. This is the way of social responsibility. The spiritual wisdom we gain from the Gospel challenges us to balance and blend the demands of both time and eternity so as to engage in the world without delusion, without the world and its wealth dominating us. Even while we have possessions, we have to disown them, not allow them to own us. Centered in God's grace so very deeply, we see wealth as a means and an opportunity for "loving our neighbor," for extending God's blessedness to others.

Jesus teaches that everything is gift; and that what we have received as a gift, we must give as a gift. Jesus stands long-suffering in His loving look at each of us, asking of us that "one more thing."

– Fr. Jay

Fill us at daybreak with your mercy, that all our days we may sing for joy.

SAINT LUKE

Saint of the Day: October 18

Patron Saint of: Artists/Painters, Brewers and Butchers

Luke wrote one of the major portions of the New Testament, a two-volume work comprising the third Gospel and Acts of the Apostles. In the two books he shows the parallel between the life of Christ and that of the Church. He is the only Gentile Christian among the Gospel writers. Tradition holds him to be a native of Antioch, and Paul calls him "our beloved physician." His Gospel was probably written between 70 and 85 A.D.

Luke appears in Acts during Paul's second journey, remains at Philippi for several years until Paul returns from his third journey, accompanies Paul to Jerusalem, and remains near him when he is imprisoned in Caesarea. During these two years, Luke had time to seek information and interview persons who had known Jesus. He accompanied Paul on the dangerous journey to Rome where he was a faithful companion.

Luke's unique character may best be seen by the emphases of his Gospel, which has been given a number of subtitles:

- 1) The Gospel of Mercy
- 2) The Gospel of Universal Salvation
- 3) The Gospel of the Poor
- 4) The Gospel of Absolute Renunciation
- 5) The Gospel of Prayer and the Holy Spirit
- 6) The Gospel of Joy

Luke wrote as a Gentile for Gentile Christians. There is a warmth to Luke's writing that sets it apart from that of the other synoptic Gospels, and yet it beautifully complements those works.

FAITH FORMATION OPPORTUNITIES

CELEBRATION DEACON SUNDAY

The purpose of Deacon Sunday is to affirm those men who have said YES to serve the Church in a profound way. Deacons deserve much affirmation for their tireless work, proclaiming the word of God, giving homilies, performing baptisms, and witnessing marriages, among other responsibilities. These selfless servants are fully ordained clergy, reporting directly to the bishop. St. Francis has been blessed with many deacons over the years, but we extend our gratitude to Deacon Eric Wright and retired Deacon Steve DeMers. May these good men who have been drawn to love and to serve the People of God continue to receive the support they deserve from the lay faithful.

We also recognize another of our own during this celebration. After prayerful and serious consideration, Bishop Earl K. Fernandes has formally accepted parishioner Joshua Dziatkowicz into the Diaconate School of Theology for the Diocese of Columbus. Josh will use this opportunity to further discern, study and prepare for the Sacrament of Holy Orders. The Rite of Candidacy will be held on Sunday, 12/1 at 5:15pm at St. Joseph Cathedral. Please keep Josh, his wife Billie and their family in your prayers during this formation process.

How can I honor our deacons?

Pray for your deacon, and all deacons serving at our parish, in the Diocese and elsewhere

- Pray for the vocation programs for the Diocese – and for more people to be open to a call to the diaconate, priesthood, and religious brothers and sisters
- Personally thank your deacon on Deacon Sunday, or any day
- Invite your deacon for dinner with your family and friends
- Send a card or letter to a retired deacon

PARISH NEWS

CONSTRUCTION ON HANDICAP RAMP BEGINS 10/14

We're delighted to announce that construction of a new handicap access ramp will begin the week of 10/14. The ramp will provide access to the front doors of the church from Granville and Pearl Streets. We expect the construction to take approximately 4-6 weeks. The sidewalk closest to the west side of the church (leading from the sacristy and rear lots toward Granville Street) will be temporarily closed during construction. Please follow the posted signage to ensure your safety. Following completion of the ramp, electronic entry/exit mechanisms will be installed on the church doors closest to the ramp along with new electronic-timed locks on all other church doors. This project is made possible by the generosity of donors to the annual Diocesan Appeal +Us. Thank you, donors!

I CAME SO THAT THEY MIGHT HAVE LIFE

During the Easter Vigil liturgy, the single flame of the Easter candle shines through the darkness. That small flame spreads as each person's candle is lit and the light of Christ is shared with others. Before we know it, the entire Church is ablaze with the warm glow of candlelight and the darkness has been vanquished.

We are each called by God to be that light of Christ that breaks through the darkness. We are called to be his disciples, continually transformed by our encounter with him and sharing in his mission. Jesus came that we might have life.

Part of the impetus for the Eucharistic Revival was a concern that some Catholics do not believe, or at least do not understand, that Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist. Even though our human senses perceive bread and wine, the Eucharist is Jesus—body, blood, soul, and divinity. Similarly, many people do not realize or acknowledge the sanctity of human life when it is hidden in the womb. Both instances call for us to help others recognize these sacred gifts that may not be perceivable through our human senses. We need to help others understand that just because something may not be apparent to our eyes does not mean that it is not there or that it is not important.

We live in a society that rejects those who are weak, fragile, or vulnerable. Yet, it is precisely within these conditions that a person is most in need of our care and protection. Pope Francis reminds us that “every child who, rather than being born, is condemned unjustly to being aborted, bears the face of Jesus Christ, bears the face of the Lord, who even before he was born, and then just after birth, experienced the world’s rejection.”¹

“The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.”

John 1:5

The U.S. bishops have affirmed that, while it is important to address all the ways in which human life is threatened, “abortion remains our pre-eminent priority as it directly attacks our most vulnerable brothers and sisters, destroying more than a million lives each year in our country alone.”²

As Pope St. John Paul II wrote, “we are facing an enormous and dramatic clash between good and evil, death and life, the ‘culture of death’ and the ‘culture of life’. ...we are all involved and we all share in it, with the inescapable responsibility of choosing to be unconditionally pro-life.”³

“I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

Matthew 28:20

In the face of challenges such as abortion and physician-assisted suicide, we may feel that we are not equal to the task of overcoming the darkness. Yet, we are not alone. Jesus tells us, “I am with you always, until the end of the age” (Matthew 28:20).

The God who became man to save us still dwells among us. For Christ is “the light [that] shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it” (John 1:5). He is the one who overcame death and continually raises us to new life. He remains close to us always, seeking us out in each moment of our lives.

Jesus gave his very flesh to give us the gift of eternal life and invites us to the most profound experience of this gift in our celebration of the Eucharist. When we meet Jesus in the Eucharist, this encounter has the power to change us. The Eucharist has the power to transform the depths of our hearts and the heart of our culture. United to the power of his Eucharistic Presence, may we work to ensure that each person has life—and has it in abundance.
