OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

Prayer to the Virgin of Guadalupe

“Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion.

Help expectant parents to welcome from God the priceless gift of their child’s life. Console parents who have lost that gift through abortion, and lead them to forgiveness and healing through the Divine Mercy of your Son. Teach us to cherish and to care for family and friends until God calls them home. Help us never to see others as burdens. Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws. Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice.

We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.”

THE POPE’S PRAYER INTENTIONS FOR NOVEMBER

For anyone who has lost a child:

We pray that all parents who mourn the loss of a son or daughter find support in their community and receive peace and consolation from the Holy Spirit.

BEING HEARD

Reflection on Mark 10:46-52

We often consider Jesus' question: "Who do you say that I am?" as the most important question for would-be followers ever posed in the New Testament. Certainly, each of us must answer this question not only in the course of what we believe about Jesus but also in how we go about living our lives.

But perhaps today's question posed to Bartimaeus from Jesus: "What do you want me to do for you?" is equally, if not even more significant for disciples.

When Jesus tells Bartimaeus that his faith has saved him, perhaps He was referencing the beggar's persistence, his determination to find his voice and make it heard, his insistence that carrying his desires/prayers to Jesus in personal encounter will surely result in a showering of grace, his courage in going against the "many" who just want him to go away and stop irritating them.

When Jesus encounters the faith of Bartimaeus, and when He encounters our faith, He stresses that we are first and last His beloved children. May you know, in the depth of your being, that you are loved by God. When we have this gift, we can approach the Divine as a child, with any request, and we will be heard.

– Fr. Jay

SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES

Saint of the Day: November 3

Patron Saint of: African Americans, Barbers, Hairdressers,
Race Relations, Radio, Social Justice

Martin was the son of a freed woman of Panama and a Spanish grandee of Lima, Peru. Martin inherited the features and dark complexion of his mother. His parents never married. After the birth of a sister, his father abandoned the family. Martin was reared in poverty. Even as a child, he gave his heart and his goods to the poor and despoised. When he was 12, his mother apprenticed him to a barber-surgeon. He learned to cut hair and also to care for wounds, treat illness, and prepare and administer medicines.

Martin applied to the Dominicans to be a "lay helper," not feeling worthy to be a religious brother. After nine years of prayer, penance, charity and humility, the community requested that he make full religious profession. Many of his nights were spent in prayer and penance; his days were filled with caring for the sick and the poor, regardless of their color, race, or status. He was instrumental in founding an orphanage, caring for slaves brought from Africa, and became the procurator for both priory and city.

Side by side with his daily work, Martin's life reflected God's extraordinary gifts: ecstasies that lifted him into the air, light filling the room where he prayed, bilocation, miraculous knowledge, instantaneous cures, and a remarkable rapport with animals. He would excuse the raids of mice and rats, and he kept stray cats and dogs at his sister's house.

A formidable fundraiser, he obtained thousands of dollars for dowries so that poor girls could marry or enter a convent. Many of his religious fellows took Martin as their spiritual director, but he continued to call himself a "poor slave."
